"94, Commercial Road, Peckham, July 12, "Dear Sir,—I am a poor hand at expressing my feelings, but I should like to thank you. Your losenges have done wonders in relieving my terrible cough. Since I had the operation of 'Trachectomy' (the same as the late Emperor of Germany, and unlike him, thank God, I am still alive) performed at St. Bartholomew's Hospital, no one could possibly have had a more violent cough: it was so had at times that it quite exhausted me. The moreus, which was very copious and hard, has been softened, and I have been able to get rid of it without difficulty.—I am, sir, yours truly, J. H [1,1]." culty.—Lum, sir, yours truly, J. HILL."

THE forty-five Korean students imported by Count Inouys attempted to run away from Tokyo the night they heard of the coup detat in Soul. Count Inouve lectured them on their folly next day, Oct. 10th, and, though they all seemed to concur in his views, thirty-six of them secuped that night. The Count caught them at Shimbashi milway station, and begged of them to postpone their flight, but this they refused to do. Then Incure asked them to give him a 'chit' certifying that he had done his best to detain them. This they did cheerfully and then went on their way, while the Count returned home. -Japan Advertiser.

SUPREME COURT. IN APPELLATE JURISDICTION. (Before the Full Court.)

Wednesday, Oct. 23. THE INTERMINABLE OPIUM CASE.

The case of four chests of opium, seized cis, Q.C., instructed by Mr H. L. Dennys, was for the respondents. In the first instance the police had prosecuted the beatman for illegally moving opium during prohibited hours. The Magistrate Mr Wodehouse, convicted, and the conviction was quashed by the Court of Appeal, which held that under the clauses Emperor William of Germany, said that it dealing with illegal removal, the person to be punished is not the actual coolis or boatman who moved the opium, but the owner to move it. Accordingly, the police then charged the owner of the four chests; but Mr Wedshouse dismissed the case without calling on the defence. The Crown now appealed against his verdict of dismissal. The position was that the Magistrate had been acting as judgeand jury; and he as judge directed himself is jury to find that there was no case, and the appellants
